

Tech's Kyle Kattke ran 16:48 to outdistance the field at the 5th annual Halloween Sock Hop 5K run. Mike Krsnak finished second in 17:07, followed by Riley Coates at 17:17. The top female was RC Douglas freshman Bailey Eich. She finished 21st overall in 21:52, outsprinting Ashley Riter-Collins to the finish line. About 130 runners tackled the 5K course on a beautiful Sunday afternoon. Many competitors ran in costume. The winning centipede was the Female National Football League, consisting of Allanah Woehler, Jenna Stephens, Jordan Smith, Megan Johnson and Chelsey Biegler.

Forty-four youngsters ran the 1K race, receiving Halloween candy at the finish line. Eric Moriarty topped the boys division in 4:12, while Emily Pierson ran 4:12 to win the girls division. Winners of the costume contest included Macey the clown, Superwoman Aspen, Roberta the Vampire and Jerry flowing hair.
